The Comptroller was accordingly Consulted. He gately he states that it is undesirable that the amount of the permanent advances which is already high, should be multiplied as this is prohibited by Articles 78 & 79 of the Civil Account Code & suggests that the amount of Rs 300/- now asked for maybe added to the permanent advance of Rs 40/- already held by the Excise Comr. I am inclined to think to the distribute the amount to the several Govt Offrs to be accounted for by them to him (the Comr) under the provisions of the Account Code - A draft reference of the Comptlr's suggestion is sent for approval

The Excise Commissioner's Officers are 6 in number. They are Officers of fairly high position, and all are stationed in different parts of the State. It may cause confusion and difficulty in the Excise Commrs Office to distribute permanent advances to so many Officers and to make up their accounts and submit them to the Comptr. Auditors and other Officers have separate permanent advances and similarly I think the Excise Divisional Officers may be given permanent advances to be accounted for by them direct to the Comptroller

20/2/03

Auditors are given permanent advances. Comparatively Exc Sub Offrs Cannot be called petty Offrs. A draft accdg to the Dy Secys view ~~may be~~ submitted for approval.

SIR,

With reference to your docket No.277 dated 23rd December 1902 ~~from asking~~ forwarding for opinion copy of letter No.3500/139 dated 2/11th Idem from the Excise Commissioner in re permanent advances to Excise Divisional officers, I have the honor to state that while there is no objection to permanent advances being held by the Excise officers in question it is undesirable that the number of such advances which is already very large should be multiplied. The Civil Account Code also prohibits it. Vide Articles 77 & 78. I would therefore suggest that instead of sanctioning separate advances for each Divisional officer the total amount asked for viz Rs.300/- may be added to the Permanent advance now held by the Excise Commissioner raising it from Rs. ~~25~~ 40/- the present amount to Rs. ~~325~~ 340/- leaving it to him to distribute it to the several Divisional officers to be accounted for by them to him under the rules of the Civil Account Code.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
